Salvation Songs

Time—Come to the Saviour, 222; Larks Song—In Thee, 111; Larks Song—No. 111.

Delay not, delay not; O sinner, draw near.

The waters of life are now flowing for thee; No price is demanded, the Saviour is here.

Redemption is purchased, salvation is free.

Oh! the drunkard may come, and the sweaver may come; Heedless and sinners a/e all welcome here; If you will but believe and be washed in the blood.

For ever and ever you'll dwell with the Lord.

Delay not, delay not; why longer abuse The love and compassion of Jesus thy God?

A fountain is opened, how canst thou refuse To wash and be cleansed in His pardoning blood?

Delay not, delay not; O sinner, to come, For mercy still lingers, and calls thee today.

His voice is heard in the vale of the tomb—His message, unaltered, will soon pass away.

Plunge in the fountain, Plunge in the fountain, The fountain which cleanses the soul; Thy cleansing far and near; And his streams are flowing here; Oh, believe it, and thou art made whole.

WINNIPEG VIII.—The Corps is in a fine fighting spirit and we are sure of victory.

On Thursday, May 18, we welcomed our new officers, Capt. and Mrs. Fox.

A programme was arranged and led by Y.E.S.M., Adjutant Carter.

The Home League Secretary had a cup of tea and cake ready at the end of the meeting.

On Sunday we had good meetings all day. At night one soul came and gave his heart to God.

We are looking forward to the next future.

Our prayers go with the officers who are far away from home.

Band Notes

EDMONTON No. 1.—On Tuesday night, we went out on a special for about two and one-half hours. There were eighteen gentlemen and six collectors, and with the effort that was put forth, and with the appreciation that was shown by the people in the district where we played, the sum of over $35 was realized. This money went towards the comrades' targets for S.D. who went out that night.

The Tuesday night following the band went up to the No. 3 Corps, at the farewell of the Divisional Officers and others who are going to other fields of labor.

The band is going along nicely under the baton of Superintendent Galt, who is working hard to keep it up to a proper state of proficiency. We are believing for better times, both materially and spiritually. The weather has been very much against us for the seven months of winter that we have had, in regard to playing outside, but now it has warmed up considerably we believe that God is going to make us a great blessing.—J. Staff Officers of Canada West Now Being Installed by The Commissioner

Every child of God, every truly converted person, has the Holy Spirit in some gracious manner and measure, else he would not be a child of God, for it is only "as many as are led by the Spirit of God" that "are the sons of God."

It is the Holy Spirit who convicts us of sin, who makes us feel how good and righteous, and just and patient, God is, and how guilty we are, and how unfit for Heaven, and how near to Hell.

He Leads

It is the Holy Spirit who leads us to true repentance and confession and amendment of life; and when our repentance is complete, and our surrender is unconditional, it is He who reasons with us, and calms our fears, and soothes our troubled hearts, and banishes our darkness, and enables us to look to Jesus, and believe on Him for the forgiveness of all our sins and the salvation of our souls.

And when we yield and trust, and are accepted of the Lord, and are moved of grace, it is He who assures us of the Father's favor, and assures us that we are saved. "The Spirit Himself beareth witness with our spirit that we are the children of God." He is "the Spirit of Adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father."

But, great and gracious as is this work, it is not the fiery Pentecostal baptism with the Spirit which is promised; it is not the fullness of the Holy Ghost to which we are exhorted. It is only the clear dawn of the day, and not the rising of the daystar. This is only the initial work of the Spirit. It is perfect of its kind, but it is preparatory to another and fuller work.

The Called of God.

1. Peter II 9, 10
1. What are we as the Called of God.
2. A chosen generation.
3. A royal priesthood.
4. A holy nation.
5. A peculiar people.
6. Why are we the Called of God?
7. To show forth His praises.
8. What were we before God called us?
9. In darkness.
10. Not a people.
11. Without mercy.
12. What we should be as the Called of God.
13. Good.
14. Holy.

—W. R.

There is a wise saying among the Arabs that runs about like this: "When you cross the desert plain by the way, you may return, old and weary to sit under that shadow and out of their fruit." This is carrying into effect as we go about our daily tasks.

For this is peace—to lose the lonely note Of soul in love's colonial ordered strain;

And this is joy—to find one's self again In Him whose harmonies forever hint Through all the spheres of song, below, For God is music, even as God is love.

—Henry Van Dyke.

So much we miss If love is weak; to reach we gain If love is strong; God thinks no pain Too sharp or lasting to obtain To teach us this.

—Helen Hunt Jackson.

The Holy Spirit's Work.

By Colonel SAMUEL BRENGLE, D.D.

A Helpful Definition of the Offices of God the Holy Ghost in the Human Soul

Jesus said to His disciples, concerning the Holy Spirit, that "the world" (the unconverted, unrepentant) "cannot receive Him," because it sceth Him, not, neither knoweth Him; because they resist Him, and will not permit Him to work in their hearts. And then Jesus added, "But ye know Him; for He dwelleth with you . . . He had begun His work in them, but there was more to follow, for Jesus said, "And shall be in you."

Abiding Presence

When a man is building himself a house he is in and out of it and round about it. But we do not say he lives in it until it is completely done. And it is in that sense that Jesus said, "He dwelleth with you." But when the house is finished, the owner goes out and all the chips and sawdust, scrub the floor, lays down his carpets, hangs up his pictures, arranges his furniture, and moves in with his family. Then he is in the fullest sense within it. He abides there.

Make Me Fit!

Now, it is in that sense that Jesus meant that the Holy Spirit should be in them. This is fully expressed in one of our songs:

Holy Spirit, come, Oh, come!
Let Thy work in me be done!
All that hinders shall be thrown aside;
Make me fit to be Thy Dwelling.

The Best Friend

One of the greatest virtues of last century has told of a forsaken wife, dying, poor, heart-broken, lonely and unloved. She had no one with her but her little son, whom she had taught to pray. When the end came very close, there fell a strange clamorous into her soul, which calmed away fear and hushed the voice of agony; and she lay for a season as if entranced. Then she spoke to her child, and charged him all his life to cry every morning and every night the prayer and hymn he had just been saying: "They are all I have to leave you but if you only believe them you will never be without comfort, no matter what happens to you." The hymn was: "One there is above all others, Well deserves the name of Friend; He is love beyond a brother's, In love, true, and knows no end." In the Lord's Supper we have a reminder of our best Friend, the Lord Jesus Christ.—H.

THE SPHERE OF SOUL-SEEKING

"I speak out of my deepest heart—out of my strongest convictions—as to what God feels about this matter, and as to what Jesus of Calvary would have you do. I realize your conscience bears me witness that it is so, and echoes the truth. Then, I ask you, can you, in the face of this, risk your soul—your future—your eternity, and the souls and futures and eternities of perhaps thousands more by turning aside and seeking rest? Can you leave the sphere of soul-seeking for money-seeking? Can you forsake the Cross for earthly business gains, or anything else, profit you on your living body? You must be gone then—and all only that which can give you real satisfaction, which will be to us what influence you are expecting in the earth for all that Calvary taught."—The Late Consul Barth-Tucker.

they were fearful, timid and false to Him when the testing time came.

Used Their Failures

But the Holy Spirit did not forsake them. He still wrought within them, and, no doubt, used their very mistakes and miserable failures to perfect within them the spirit of humility and perfect self-abasement in order that they might safely be exalted.

And this experience of theirs before Pentecost is the common experience of all true converts. Every child of God knows that the Holy Spirit is with him, realizing that He is working within him, striving to set the house in order. And with many who are properly taught and gladly obedient, this work is done quickly, and the Holy Ghost, the Blessed One, takes up His constant abode with them; the toil and strife with inbred sin is ended by its destruction, and they enter at once into the Sabbath of holy Salvation.

Foundation of Faith

Surely this is possible. The disciples could not receive the Holy Spirit till Jesus was glorified; because until then was the foundation for perfect, intelligent, unswerving faith laid. But since the Day of Pentecost, He may be received immediately by those who have repented of all sin, who have believed on Jesus and been born again.

The Spirit seeks to bring every thought into "captivity to the obedience of Christ," to lead the soul to that point of glad, wholehearted consecration to His Lord, and that simple, perfect faith in the merits of His Blood which shall enable Him to cast out "the old man," destroy "the carnal mind," and making the heart His Temple, enthroned Christ within.

A Good Resolve

Let me be a little kinder, Let me be a little blinder, To the faults of these about me. Let me praise a little more, Let me love a little more, Just a little less more chide. Let me serve a little better, That that I am striving for.

Let me be a little braver, When temptation bids me waver; Let me strive a little harder To be all that I should be. Let me be a little more, With the brother that is weaker; Let me think more of my neighbor; And a little less of me.

"As thy days Thy Strength Shall Be"

"As thy days thy strength shall be," stands this promise true for thee; Bear not the burden of tomorrow May be brought with some new sorrow.

Lift the head and trustful say: "God will surely be my stay."

He makes all things for His own Work toward good, and good alone. Never let this truth grow dim; Remember not thy hope on Him: His oath transcendent will bend Unto him which never shall end.

"As thy days thy strength shall be," Love will temper all for thee; Naught thou shalt have more than I: When all griefs shall flee away.

With faith or joy or sorrow, Till the glad, morning dawn; When all griefs shall flee away.

—Saloete.

Be true to your word, your work and your friend.

Here a noted criminal, who had served 22 years, became converted, and as a Prison soldier, from Kingston, in charge of Hamilton No. 1, the Y.P. work, and such advances that it was necessary to erect a new hall for the Y.P. work. From Hamilton he was sent back to London in charge of the No. 1 Corps, and after eight months of service, became Chancellor of the Division. Later he was promoted Staff-Captain, and sent to the Pacific Division as Chancellor.

During the eighteen months of the Major's stay in Alberta, a substantial increase has been made in the Y.P. work, especially among the Corps Cadets, where Alberta carried the banner with one hundred and eight bonafide Corps Cadets to date.

Mrs. Smith

Mrs. Major Smith's acquaintance with The Army dates back to its very early days in Canada, where as a small girl of seven years she used to accompany her father to the meetings and take part in the same by singing or word of testimony.

When still in her teens she definitely gave herself to God for service in The Army, and was sent as a Corps Cadet to assist in the Provincial Office in Montreal. Here she was accepted for Officership and sent to London Provincial Headquarters. After a term and mother became soldiers, so now

Whole Family Won

I was the first in the family to join The Army. My eldest brother, now the Major, was too stiff and too "churchy" for The Army—but he gave us his blessing and so did father and mother. My brother's stiffness soon faded away, and before long he was on the platform too. First as a friend, then as a soldier, and later as a bandman. My younger brothers and sisters were soon won for God in their childhood. Some years later my father, mother and mother became soldiers, so now ready to help along the work of God, and is never happier than when she can take part in the battle for souls and helping others.

Major Alice Goodwin

Divisional Officer, Calgary

Major Goodwin has in her possession her first official appointment paper, with "Headquarters, Eastern S.C. Toronto," printed on it, and it is dated November, 1887; so that it will immediately be recognized that the Major is a veteran of the Canadian war in the truest sense of the word.

Alice Goodwin was still in her teens when she first attended Salvation Army meetings. Her first real touch was at a Kingston (Ont.) outpost, which place she entered in the work. The first work given her to do was to travel through the Kingston Division with a Singing Brigade, and amongst the Corps visited was one commanded by Lieutenant E. Taylor (now Brigadier of T.H.O.). Following this she was appointed to Corps work and was stationed at a number of Ontario and Quebec Corps.

First Western Appointment

Eventually she was promoted Ensign, and assigned to the office of the Garrison Corps at Brandon, Man., and then followed by Winnipeg, where she was promoted Adjutant; Jamestown, N.D.; Ottawa; Montreal; Hamilton; Lippinsett; London; and finally to the present position of Divisional Officer, Calgary, B.C., where she has served two terms, after which "To Vancouver, B.C." meant the appointment as Ensign. The training College proceeded her appointment at Winnipeg (Ont.), which was followed by Peterborough, from whence the Staff-Captain returned to Montreal and took charge of Point St. Charles, Quebec.

Ottawa, I came next and this was a second term for that Corps. Three of the most happy years were spent there. The Citadel was enlarged, $5,000 being spent on it. But of all, the greatest of all was the fact that I was brought to Christ and enrolled as a soldier. Farewell orders came at the time of the 10th Congress, and providentially, the Major turned aside from starting for the Congress on the ill-fated "Empress of Ireland."

Montreal I followed, and then the transfer to Canada West and House Jaw was the battle ground. After a sixteen months stay there, an appointment in a new capacity was made known, this was to fill the position of Divisional Secretary in the Saskatchewan Division. A promotion to the rank of Major was received while there. Two years and three months was spent in that Division; and then a move to T.H.Q. and in December last another move to the Alberta Division as Divisional Commander took place.

Staff-Captain and Mrs. White

Chancellors, Winnipeg Division

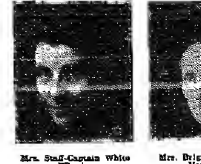

By the tender mercies of God I was brought to Christ through the influence of the S.A. in a meeting conducted by Mrs. Colonel Mergetta in the summer of 1894. After soldiering for some two years at the above Corps I came to Winnipeg, and since that time have been a few months before entering the Training Garrison in Toronto.

Major and Mrs. Craig

Divisional Commanders, Regina

Nineteen years ago I married Captain Winnie Craig, who three years previously had been transferred from Glasgow Street, Toronto. As a Field Officer she was stationed at St. Catharines, Orillia, Hamilton, Niagara Falls, and other places. I began my eight years on the Field at that interesting centre known as Brandon, and have the extreme honor of commanding several Corps throughout the Territory, such as Sherbrooke (Toronto), Ingersoll, Fortage in Prairie, Windsor, Spokane (Wash.) and Lindsay. From there we were appointed to special work on T.H.Q., Toronto, and for four years had charge of the Subscribers' Department. We were then sent West to Vancouver, where we labored for God and The Army as the representatives of Finance, Men's Social, Immigration and Transportation. At the expiration of that period we were appointed as Chancellors to the London Division, where for three years we rejoiced in the blessing of God. From there I was appointed as Chaplain to His Majesty's Forces, and for some twelve months, until my health failed, I enjoyed my work among the men and saw hundreds of them brought to Christ.

Staff-Captain and Mrs. Habbick Divisional Officers, Brandon.

Was born in Seaford, Ontario, but early in life moved to Seaford, Ontario. Owing to the illness of his mother, however, returned to Seaford, where he met the Army, and on July 6th, 1886, was converted in a children's meeting. At that time there were only four children present. The Staff-Captain delighted to tell that the whole congregation was made up of children. After six years of soldiering in Seaford, and one in Stratford, where he was first bandmaster of the Stratford band, he again moved to Winnipeg, where for two years he worked as a soldier and bandmaster at the Citadel.

Western Pioneer

Feeling God's call to be an officer, he applied and was accepted, and was sent as a cadet to assist Captain Copmarly at Mooseman. After a couple of months he was moved to Fort St. James (Kenora) with Major Seb. Smith, where he was promoted Lieutenant, and again Captain. He was then sent for the West, and for some time traveled the Western provinces in the interest of the Young People. At this time he was also associated with several traveling bands known as the "Habitat Band, Life Guards, &c." Several corps followed this, and in March, 1899, he was married at Fort Arthur, where he was promoted. Ensign, took charge of a Training Corps at Fort Porcupine and later at Grand Forks, S.D., from which place they were transferred to the East and took charge of Montreal. Here he was promoted Adjutant and was stationed at the following Corps and Districts: Ottawa, Kingston, Division, Brandon, Hamilton, Ligonier, Dovercourt and St. John's No. 1, Newfoundland. Having, rather a serious breakdown in his change of work was necessary, and for a few years he worked in connection with the Subscribers' Department, when he again came West, and was stationed at Moose Jaw and Edmonton. From there he was appointed as Financial Collector for the Saskatchewan Division and later to Y.P. Secretary of the same Division, where he spent three years. From there to Vancouver, where for two years he filled the position of Y.P. Secretary.

Mrs. Habbick

Mrs. Staff-Captain Habbick, while on a visit to her grand-parents in Loughborough, England, was taken to an Army meeting on a Sunday afternoon. The officers were Captain Brevoort and Lieutenant Phillips (now Brigadier Phillips, T.S. Principal, Winnipeg), the "Special" for the day was Happy, now Brigadier Southall, of Toronto. The drum and fife did not appeal to her as religious gathering, but she

HOLINESS—A Personal Testimony

By Commandant Mrs. Hobbs
Vancouver

As a young convert, listening in Holiness Meetings to various testimonies, invariably I compared myself with them. They spoke of "the blessing" since receiving "it," and so on, and taking my eyes off Jesus I seemed, spiritually, in a fog. The Holy Spirit, who is ever ready to help a sincere soul and guide into all truth, led me to a surrender of myself, and all I represented—my hopes and fears, my ambitions, my body and soul, my will; (2) to receive God as my sanctification—"who of God is made unto us wisdom, righteousness, sanctification and redemption." Hallelujah!

So many, also seem to treat this all-important experience as a negative affair, a continual giving up—but, Winnipeg. Owing to the illness of his mother, however, returned to Seaford, where he met the Army, and on July 6th, 1886, was converted in a children's meeting. On their journey through Canada West they are visiting several Corps and speaking in the various phases of life in Korea, and incidentally imparting considerable information concerning the work of the S.A. in that very interesting country.

On Sunday last our comrades were present at various meetings in Winnipeg. In the evening a visit was paid to Winnipeg Hill, and two souls were recorded as a result of this service. On Tuesday evening a visit was paid to St. James. The weather was very unfavorable and the attendance was not large. Still, those who came were well repaid in listening to a most interesting recital on the religious, customs, history, etc., of Korea by the Adjutant. The Chief Secretary was present, also Brigadier May, president, Brigadier and Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Brigadier Phillips and a number of other Officers.

Amongst the others to be visited in Canada were the Princes, Comptroller Secretary, the leader of the Army in Sweden, and a telegram expressing the sympathy of The General and the Army with the Crown Prince and Royal Family.

Staff Change, U.S.A.

Colonel Pearl, the Chief Secretary in his Notes in the latest New York War Cry, refers to the coming staff changes as follows:

"The Commander has during this week sent out instructions to a large number of his leading Staff Officers that the time is approaching when they will be called upon to farewell. While it is not yet time to say adieu to any of our comrades, it is a matter of common knowledge for each man to know his own position in the present action, and such communication is a cause to rally forth on the part of the recipients, and is a matter of deepest interest throughout the entire staff. I hope to see also some of the names of the Officers who are affected by this great change. Meanwhile, I am sure that the staff is very appreciative."

We very sincerely regret that, up to the time of going to press, we were unable to secure a synopsis of the names of the Officers who are affected by this great change. Meanwhile, I am sure that the staff is very appreciative."

HERBERT, Rank. On Monday, May 10, last, Y.P. in the boys, who seem to be very interested. Good Managings were enjoyed on Sunday May 16, and two souls were recorded for Halina at night. On the Hall under deep conviction.

The Late Crown Princess of Sweden

Her Royal Highness' Interest in The Salvation Army

The death of the Crown Princess of Sweden has deprived The Army in that country of a sympathetic friend and adviser. A regular reader of The Army's monthly magazine, "All the World," the Princess, who of course belonged by birth to the British Royal House, sought in many ways to understand our work, which she had personally viewed.

When an exhibition of handicrafts produced by deaf and dumb and blind people under The Army's care was held in Stockholm a few years ago, Princess Margaret attended with her Consort the Crown Prince, and remained for two hours conversing through an interpreter with the afflicted people. She also bought a small writing-desk from one of the Salvationists who was blind and deaf and dumb, and who, despite that serious handicap, did most beautiful jewelry work.

On this occasion the Crown Prince delivered a speech. Immediately on receipt of the news of the death of the Princess, Comptroller Secretary, the leader of the Army in Sweden, sent a telegram expressing the sympathy of The General and the Army with the Crown Prince and Royal Family.

New Zealand

The latest New Zealand Cry makes the interesting announcement that Major S. Delaney, Women's S.A. Secretary, has travelled and left New Zealand after two years' service in that interesting country.

The Salvation Army, under Commissioner Horder, played a prominent part in the welcome to the Prince of Wales. One of the Auckland Corps Bands was given a place of honor and received cordial recognition from the Prince.

Anzac Day has just been celebrated throughout New Zealand. Memorial services were held everywhere in honor of the glorious dead. Several Salvationist members of the crew of H.M.S. "Honor" took part in the S.A. Memorial Services conducted by Commissioner Horder in Auckland.

Two of the sons of Commissioner Horder, Messrs. Daniel and Herbert, are stationed as Staff-Captains in the latest British Gry to India. We extend congratulations to both of the Officers and their parents. Adjutant Daniel is accountable at the Haldimand and District Colony, and Adjutant Herbert is a Divisional Young People's Secretary in the British Fifth Division.

The Self Denial Campaign

The results of the Special Campaign in Canada East are not yet complete. Some details, however, are announced in the Toronto Cry. The income for the Special Day in Toronto was $15,000.72. This effort stands out as a tribute to the position of The Army and every true man of God, because of the number of contributions rather than the amounts.

Some interesting incidents are related by letters, of which the following is a sample: A crippled man, walking with the aid of crutches, had half a dozen tags on his coat. "Tag me again, Sister," he said to a tagger, and every time I pass by give me another one. I'm going to help The Army to the limit of my ability."

The incidents are that when returns are complete, there will be a record of the number of contributions rather than the amounts.

Unparalleled Scenes in Melbourne and Sydney

Rising Tide of Enthusiasm among Officers, Soldiers, and the Populace—Our Leader's Rousing Progress across the Continent

Splendid Penitent-Form Total

Special War Cry Cable from Commissioner Theodore Kitching

Sydney, May 15th.

Allice for feeling, inspiration, and enthusiasm, the Melbourne Campaign rose day by day. Sunday's crowds from start to finish, were most difficult to cope with owing to their numbers and their eagerness to see and hear The General. There was a splendid total of 300 soldiers.

Most impressive Young People's meetings have been conducted, with heart-melting results in the shape of salvation and consecration, and unforgettable scenes.

The New Indian Commands Reorganization Completed—Commissioner's Map on His Way Home

After his campaign in India and Ceylon, which he visited as The General's representative in connection with the readjustment of the Territories, Commissioner's Map is now on his return journey. The important commission entrusted to him necessitated two or more visits to each of the newly-formed Territories.

Large and enthusiastic gatherings in connection with the inauguration of the new leaders have been successfully carried through. Councils for Staff Officers and various public engagements have kept the Commissioner busily engaged, but apart from one slight breakdown in Madras he was able to fulfill the program. In a recent letter the Commissioner says: "I think I have thrown off all traces of my short but sharp illness."

Apart from conferring with the Salvation Army leaders and meeting also took part.

His comrades, the Commissioner has had interviews with many leading Government officials and Indian gentlemen, and it is anticipated that the result of these, together with the additional benefits occasioned by the new organization of the Indian Field, will bring about a great forward movement throughout India and Ceylon.

Commissioner Map was present in Colombo to greet The General and reply on their way to Australia.

United States

The Commander was the principal speaker at a great mass meeting held in the Metropolitan Opera House, New York, in the interests of the Second Home Service Campaign. General Bullard of The American Army also took part as well as other notable Ketha Boys' Band, composed of 300 boys ranging in age from 7 to 17 years, also took part.

Mrs. Commissioner Ertill, Western Territory, U.S.A., has suffered bereavement by the death of her aged father, whom she was hoping to see in connection with her visit to the Old Land. We extend our deepest sympathy.

Colonel Gaultlett, writing in the New York Cry, speaks as follows of the S.D. effort in the Western Territory: "The Self-Denial effort is now practically completed and, with gratitude to God, we are able to report a great triumph in connection with the same. The amount is the largest ever reached in the Western Territory, and shows an increase of over 26 per cent."

Lieut.-Colonel Barker, Brigadier Griffiths and Captain W. A. accompanied the Commander on his visit to the Old Land.

The next session of Caledon—expected to be the largest on record—for the Western Territory will open in August and run on to June, 1921. The Caledon will be trained in the new Training College in Chicago.

Commissioner Sartorius' Success—Tour—300 Soldiers and 500 Candidates.

There have been in each case of a public Young People's demonstration on Saturday evening—at which the hall has been crowded to its utmost capacity—followed by a Young People's day on Sunday, and Councils for Officers and Leaders on Monday, all phases of Young People's work being dealt with.

Salvation Songs

Tune—My Jesus, I Love Thee (B.H. 165)

My Jesus, I love Thee,

I know Thou art mine,

For Thou art the Saviour

Of sin I confess,

My Saviour art Thou;

If ever I loved Thee,

My Jesus, 'tis now.

I love Thee because Thou

Has first loved me,

And purchased my pardon

When called to the tree;

I love Thee for wanting

The thorn on Thy brow;

If ever I loved Thee,

My Jesus, 'tis now.

I will love Thee in life,

And praise Thee as long

As Thou lovest me to breath;

And when the death-dew

Shall cold on my brow:

"If ever I loved Thee,

My Jesus, 'tis now."

Tune—Showers of Blessing

"There shall be showers of blessing,"

This is the promise of love;

There shall be seasons refreshing

Sent from the Saviour above.

Showers of blessing,

Showers of blessing we need,

More than dew to us falling.

But for the showers we plead.

"There shall be showers of blessing,"

Precious, reviving again;

Over the hills and the valleys,

Sound of abundance of rain.

"There shall be showers of blessing,"

Send them upon us, O Lord;

Grant to us now a refreshing;

Come, and now honor Thy Word.

"There shall be showers of blessing,"

Oh, that today thy might fall,

Now as to God we're confessing,

Now as on Jesus we call.

TRADE SECRETARY

817-819 Carlton Street Winnipeg, Man.

INDIAN HEAD—We are having opened up and meetings held once a week, viz. at Appella, Gravel and of our new officers. Captains G. C. Brundage, and Capt. G. C. Brundage. In all our small towns many are coming to the Salvation Army to come and caused some to be disaffected, but with it all God has been with us and blessed our souls and helped us to clear off over $800 local debt. Our kites darts are well attended. Three new outposts Corps have been at these new openings.
